This time I will present the luxurious art deco London apartment from the film “Miss Pettigrew Lives for a Day”, an excellent acted, light-hearted, British comedy from 2008. The phenomenal movie recreates not only the design and fashion styles of the 1930s, just before the second World War, but also the Miss Pettigrew Lives for a Day is a delightful story that is very much of its day. I absolutely loved it. It can be described as a Cinderella story though Delysia LaFosse and Edythe Dubarry are reversals of the ugly sisters. As the title suggests the action takes place over the course of one day. Each chapter covers a few hours so the pace is fast.
